

EXECUTIVE BIOGRAPHY

Alban Kwan

Alban Kwan is the regional director, East Asia for CSC and is based in the Hong Kong office. He has been with CSC's Digital Brand Services business and affiliated companies since 2009, and leads the team responsible for all key accounts within the China, Hong Kong, Taiwan, Korea, and Japan markets. Alban has developed a deep understanding of online brand protection, digital assets management, and cyber security, specifically for the Asia-Pacific region, and he advises top global and local companies.

Alban frequently engages with local policy makers and is often invited to speak at conferences, where he shares his invaluable insight on brand protection, security, and local policies affecting businesses.

Alban has both a bachelor's and a master's degree in Management from Monash University in Australia.
